City of Gardens

ROSE GARDEN, Sector 16

Named after India's former President Dr. Zakir Hussain, the garden was established in 1967 under the guidance of Chandigarh's first Chief Commissioner, Late Dr. M.S. Randhawa. The largest Rose Garden in Asia is spread over an area of 27 acres and has more than 17000 plants representing some 1600 varieties of roses. Along with the roses, emphasis was also given to the trees of medicinal value and some unique species of trees to enhance the beauty of the garden. The annual "Festival of Gardens" is organized in the Rose Garden in the month of February and is listed in the "National Calendar of Events."

BOUGAINVILLEA GARDEN, Sector-3

It spreads over an area of 20 acres. The natural choe running through the valley starts from here. The garden is devoted to hundreds of varieties of bougainvillea.

A few flowering trees have also been planted to give colourful effect during the intervening period of bougainvillea flowering time. It was opened in 1976.

TERRACED GARDEN, Sector 33

A small valley running through the length of the sector has been developed into a Terraced Garden. Its main attraction is an illuminated musical fountain. The garden is the venue for the annual Chrysanthemum Show. It is spread over 10 acres and was opened in 1979.

TOPIARY PARK, Sector 35

It was opened to the public in 1987. Wire frames and the drift use of pruning shears have transformed climbing vines and creepers into fanciful animal shaped structures. The various animal shapes attract children to this park.

SHANTI KUNJ, Sector 16

Shanti Kunj is situated between Rose Garden and Cricket Stadium in Sector 16. This is a completely noise-free area with natural undulations. The natural stream running through this garden divides the park into five areas. The five parts of the garden depict different kinds of trees such as medicinal plants, vertical shaped trees, flowering trees, trees for shade and environmentally suitable area.

LEISURE VALLEY, Sector 1

Leisure valley is the most beautiful and popular tourist attraction destination in Chandigarh. Chandigarh Leisure valley is like a garland of gardens that beautifies the entire city. It begins from Rajendra Prak in Sector 1 that is basically used for long walks, yoga and other fitness
